ENGAGEMENT LETTER

Date _____

Re: Seller/Owner:
Property Address:

Dear _____:

This is to confirm that this law firm will represent you in attempting to mitigate or negotiate a short or reduced payoff with your mortgage lender (above-referenced) for a flat fee of $3,500.00 (or amount approved by seller's lender) payable at time of closing. At the time of closing, the fee will be paid by the seller's lender and not by the seller himself/herself. If the closing does not take place for whatever reason, client will not have to pay attorney the fee. Also, if the seller's lender negotiates a reduction of the $3,500.00 fee, seller will not be responsible for the difference. Neither seller nor seller's real estate agent will ever be responsible for the fee or any portion thereof. The fee is solely in consideration of our attempting to obtain a short payoff of your mortgage(s) so as to allow you to sell your above-referenced property and thereby hopefully minimize the damage to your credit caused by the foreclosure of said property. In the event the lender disallows all or part of our fee, but otherwise approves the short sale, you are not obligated to pay this fee. Also, you acknowledge that because it is a short sale transaction, you will not be allowed to net any proceeds at closing ($0.00 to seller). Moreover, you agree to cooperate in that you will provide us with a copy of any documents or information necessary to process your short sale payoff, and to cooperate in that you will attend closing and sign all documents necessary to effectuate the sale at closing.

We have also explained to you, and you understand, that our law firm's representation is strictly limited to our assisting you in attempting to obtain a short sale payoff with your lender, and not for any litigation. Therefore, we will not monitor the foreclosure case; it is your responsibility to know the status of your foreclosure case and to alert or notify us in writing of a closely approaching foreclosure sale date. If a foreclosure action has been filed against you, you should immediately notify us in writing and we will entertain entering into a separate fee agreement for the defense of your foreclosure. And, you will be required to pay us additional attorney's fees for the defense of your foreclosure case, as that represents a completely separate engagement or representation. A separate fee agreement will have to be entered into for the foreclosure representation. Of course, you may hire separate counsel to represent you in the foreclosure action. You should act promptly in this regard if you are served with a foreclosure action or a foreclosure pleading, as time is of the essence in a foreclosure proceeding.

Moreover, it should be clear that we are not representing you in connection with obtaining a modification of the mortgage of your property, reinstating your mortgage, nor in connection with any type or chapters of bankruptcy. This representation is limited solely to attempting to obtain a short sale payoff of your mortgage(s). If you decide that you would like us to represent you for a mortgage modification, reinstatement, foreclosure defense and/or bankruptcy, you must notify us in writing and we will need to enter into a separate fee agreement requiring additional fees and a separate engagement. Of course, you may hire separate counsel to represent you for any of these matters.

If we are not successful in obtaining a short sale of the mortgage, you may need to reinstate (come up with all of the arrears) the mortgage or file for Chapter 13 Bankruptcy to avoid losing the property; otherwise, a foreclosure action may be filed against you. If a foreclosure action is filed against you and you do not reinstate the mortgage or file for bankruptcy, a foreclosure judgment will be entered against you and you will lose title to the property at the foreclosure sale, and further you will be responsible for any deficiency balance resulting from the foreclosure sale. Again, if a foreclosure action is filed against you, you should immediately retain us (in writing by separate agreement) to handle that matter (or another foreclosure attorney) to represent you in the foreclosure proceeding.

The short sale process, if successful, can take anywhere from one to six months to complete, depending on the extent of your cooperation and the lender's handling your particular short sale case. Please be patient during this process. Also, please keep us informed as to any changes in your employment status or income during the short sale process. Any changes in the aforementioned can impact your short sale. You must also immediately provide us with copies of any documents/correspondence you receive from your lender at any time during the short sale process.

Moreover, it should be clear as to when our representation ends or is complete. Our representation ends once your lender approves or disapproves a short sale payoff of your mortgage(s). If the lender approves a short sale payoff, then we will collect our fees at closing in the closing statement.

It should also be clear that your lender may pursue a deficiency judgment against you for the difference of the agreed short sale payoff and the original total balance due on the mortgage. This is unless your lender agrees to release you on the deficiency at time of closing. Should your lender not agree to release you, your lender may then sue you in the future at any time to enforce the deficiency balance which you will remain liable for. Do not proceed with the short sale if you do not agree with this potential liability.

Moreover, it should be noted that there may be tax consequences associated with entering into the short sale. Specifically, the IRS may treat the deficiency balance as income therefore subject to income taxes. The income tax could turn out to be a significant sum depending on the amount of the deficiency balance as well as your income bracket. We can advise you in this regard; as to whether your particular transaction may result in a tax liability to you. Regardless, you are advised to seek guidance from an independent tax advisor and/or CPA before proceeding with the short sale.

Also, client understands and acknowledges that client's short sale file with attorneys constitutes confidential information which attorney shall not divulge to third parties. However, client hereby consents to divulging the short sale file to client's realtor in this transaction as well as client's title/closing agent in this transaction as well as buyer's realtor in the transaction. It has been explained to client that client does not have to consent to allowing realtors and/or closing/title agent to view their file, however, client is permitting such in this instance in that client feels he/she will likely benefit from realtors and/or title/closing agent knowing the status and particulars of the short sale mitigation process. Realtors and/or title agent will be able to view client's computer file electronically.

Client understands that Adams & Associates, PA is representing Client on a contingency basis, and that Adams & Associates, PA's fees are normally heavily discounted by the short sale lender. If Client declines a counter-offer from the short sale lender, investor and/or mortgage insurance company, and Client's file is declined or closed by the short sale lender as a result, Adams & Associates, PA will not resubmit the file on a contingency fee basis. If Client wants to initiate a short sale process again, the Client will have to pay Adams & Associates, PA's short sale processing fee of $3,500.00 upfront, before Adams & Associates, PA is obligated to initiate the short sale process again.

Client acknowledges and understands that in many instances estoppels letters are ordered from Client's home owners association in order to expedite the short sale process and closing of the transaction given the short sale lender's constrained deadlines for closing. The costs for the estoppels letters are advanced by Title Partners of Florida, Inc., the title company that closes all of Adams & Associate's short sale files. The cost paid by Title Partners of Florida, Inc. for the estoppel letter(s) varies by home owner's association. The cost can be anywhere from $150.00 to $500.00, or more. If Client's file is declined or closed by the short sale lender for any reason, Title Partners of Florida, Inc. will seek reimbursement of the estoppel costs it paid to the home owner's association pursuant to Section 718.116 (8)(d) of the Florida Statutes. That statute provides that the refund is the obligation of the unit owner, and the association may collect it from that owner in the same manner as an assessment as provided in Section 718 of the Florida Statutes. Examples of when Client's short sale file will be declined or closed by the short sale lender include, but are not limited to, if Client declines a counter-offer from the short sale lender, investor and/or mortgage insurance company, the buyer walks away from the transaction even though Client was not at fault, Client decides to pursue another loss mitigation outcome with the lender (such as deed in lieu or mortgage loan modification), or Client decides not to proceed with the short sale.

Client acknowledges and understands that client must immediately provide us with copies of any foreclosure documents/pleadings or correspondence client receives from his above-referenced lender or other lenders.

By executing this engagement letter, you understand that this firm reserves the right to withdraw their representation on prior notice to client. Client also has the right to terminate attorney's representation upon prior written notice to attorney.

Por supuesto usted puede contratar otros abogados para representarlo en cualquiera de estos asuntos.

Si nosotros no logramos obtener una venta corta (short sale) de su hipoteca, usted puede que necesite restablecer la hipoteca (pagando la cantidad retrasada) o presentar una bancarrota Capítulo 13 para evitar perder su propiedad, de lo contrario una acción de embargo hipotecario puede ser presentada en su contra. Si esto sucediera y usted no restablece su hipoteca (pagando la cantidad retrasada) o presenta una bancarrota, una sentencia de embargo será incorporada en contra suya y usted perderá el título de su propiedad en la venta judicial, y es más, usted será responsable por alguna deficiencia en el balance que resulte de esa venta judicial. Le repito, si una sentencia de embargo hipotecario es presentada en contra suya, usted inmediatamente debe reteneros (por escrito en un acuerdo por separado) para manejar su caso o a otros abogados que se especializan en esta materia para representarlo.

El proceso de venta corta (short sale), si es favorable, puede llevar de tres a seis meses para completar, dependiendo en gran parte en su cooperación y en la de los prestamistas gestionando su venta corta en particular. Por favor sea paciente durante este proceso. También, por favor manténganos informados de cualquier cambio en su situación de empleo o de ingresos durante el proceso de venta corta. Cualquier cambio en su situación de empleo o de ingresos durante el proceso de venta corta. Cualquier cambio en su empleo o en sus ingresos puede impactar su caso. Usted también debe inmediatamente proporcionarnos con copias de cualquier documento o correspondencia que reciba de su prestamista durante este proceso de venta corta.

Además, debe quedar bien claro, cuando termina nuestra representación o cuando ha concluido. Nuestra representación termina en el momento en que el prestamista aprueba o desaprueba aceptar el saldo de la venta corta (short sale) de sus hipoteca(s). Si el prestamista aprueba el saldo de la venta corta, entonces nosotros honorarios en el momento del cierre en el documento del cierre (si usted todavía tuviera que pagarnos). Como hemos mencionado anteriormente, estos honorarios deben de pagarse en el momento en que el acuerdo es firmado. También debe quedar bien claro, cuando termina nuestra representación o cuando ha concluido. Nuestra representación termina en el momento en que el prestamista aprueba o desaprueba aceptar el saldo de la venta corta (short sale) de su hipoteca(s). Si el prestamista aprueba el saldo de la venta corta, entonces nosotros colectamos nuestros honorarios en el momento del cierre en el documento del cierre (si usted

También debe quedar bien claro que su prestamista puede seguir buscando una sentencia de deficiencia en contra suya por la diferencia entre el saldo de la venta corta acordada y el balance total original de la hipoteca si hay un cierre en la venta corta (short sale). Otro asunto que también debe quedar bien claro es que su prestamista 'por escrito' nunca va a acordar el no continuar buscando la deficiencia en contra suya; el prestamista solamente acuerda liberarlo del embargo creado por el préstamo hipotecario. Su prestamista en cualquier momento en un futuro puede demandarlo para enforzar el balance en la deficiencia por el que usted continuara siendo responsable. No prosiga con la venta corta (short sale) si usted no está de acuerdo con esta posible responsabilidad.

En más, debe quedar indicado que puede haber consecuencias asociadas con los impuestos al entrar en la venta corta (short sale). Específicamente, el IRS puede considerar la deficiencia en el balance como ingresos y por lo tanto sujeto a pagar impuestos. Estos impuestos pueden ser una suma significativa dependiendo en la cantidad del balance de la deficiencia así como también en qué nivel de ingresos usted se encuentra. Le aconsejamos buscar orientación independiente de un asesor de impuestos, abogados y/o contador público certificado antes de proceder con la venta corta. Nosotros no somos contadores ni abogados de impuestos y por lo tanto no podemos aconsejarlo sobre si existe una responsabilidad de impuestos o si a pesar de esa responsabilidad es sin embargo conveniente para usted procede con la venta corta. No prosiga con la venta corta (short sale) si usted no está de acuerdo con la posibilidad de tener que pagar estos impuestos.

Si el cliente quiere iniciar de nuevo el proceso de venta corta, el cliente tendrá que pagar, por adelantado, a Adams & Associates, PA la cuota de procesamiento de venta corta de $3,500.00, antes de que Adams & Associates, PA está obligado a iniciar de nuevo el proceso de venta corta.

Los costos de las cartas de preclusión son pagados de antemano por la compañía de título Title Partners of Florida, Inc., la compañía de título que cierra todos los archivos de ventas cortas de Adams y Asociados. El costo pagado por Title Partners of Florida, Inc. para la carta de preclusión varía por asociación. El costo puede ser desde $150.00 a $500.00, o más. Si el archivo del cliente es rechazada o es cerrada por el banco por cualquier razón, Title Partners of Florida, Inc. solicitará el reembolso de la carta de preclusión directamente con la asociación conforme a la Sección 718.116 (8) (d) de los Estatutos de la Florida. Esa ley establece que la restitución es la obligación del propietario de la unidad, y la asociación puede colectarlo al propietario de la misma manera como una evaluación conforme a lo dispuesto en la Sección 718 de los Estatutos de la Florida. Ejemplos de cuándo el archivo de venta corta del Cliente será rechazada o cerrada por el banco incluyen, pero no están limitados a, si el cliente rechaza una contra-oferta de el banco, inversores y / o compañía de seguros hipotecarios, el comprador se aleja de la transacción a pesar de que cliente no tuvo la culpa, el cliente decide seguir adelante con otro resultado de mitigación de pérdidas con el prestamista (como una modificación de la hipoteca o entrega de llaves al banco), o el Cliente decide no seguir adelante con la venta corta.

Sin embargo esta acción en ningún momento aumentara el precio arriba mencionado.
